Dear Coco,

I'm 40 years old and have been dating for some time. Nothing is happening, I want the ring PDQ and feel stuck. I waste 2 hours doing my makeup and getting all glammed up. I am a business woman and should have clinched the deal by now. Any advice?

Ula, San Francisco

Ciao, Ula-hoop!

(Fuck, I need a lie down...WTF has happened to the world?!) Now, you know me, I am a frank filly...I am just going to say it out loud. A man (future husband, or not) is not a business transaction. He is a cave man who wants to bring the beef home! Why the f'k do you think men LOVE BBQs! He doesn't want to date a makeup counter and certainly doesn't want to feel he is sleeping with Richard Branson! Quit that boss narrative! Be the sexy feline you were born to be, and you'll soon be spending those 2 hours roasting his beef!

Episode Fourteen

very early, the pink house...

With vespa straddling, flirty aperos and Gianni's abs still swirling around Lana's head like an overexcited cocktail shaker, Lana is singing in the shower to her vintage playlist in the best of moods. Ten minutes pass, and sipping coffee, she is soaking up the morning hues from the cosiness of the terrace. Ciao, Mr Lemon Tree, how can this view be any more beautiful, she giggles kissing one of the lemons. Pinch me I'm not dreaming! Quite a tune, young lady, utters a male voice a few metres away as Lana lifts her head to a very attractive, tanned gentleman smiling from the lemon grove. Scusi. I come here to watch the sun. I heard you sing, cute! A giggling Lana blushes. Grazie mille. I sing like a drunken penguin! Ciao, I'm Augustin as he kisses the back of Lana's hand. How well mannered, ponders Lana. I own the lemon grove, and my villa is behind you. I'm here for a few days, live in Florence. Lovely to meet you. I'm Lana. You're a lucky man to have such a beautiful view. And, now with you, young lady, it is even more beautiful. Enjoy your coffee, we'll speak again, he smiles before wandering off. F'k, sighs Lana, eye candy 360 degrees. How did I get so lucky? Grabbing her phone...Frankie, wake up, you'll never guess!
