Dear Coco,

My husband bought one of those sit on lawnmowers last week in a 70% off sale. I was surprised because I can't even get him to go to the garden with the laundry. When I woke up at the weekend, he was going around and around in circles on the damn thing chasing grasshoppers, and smiling like a chipmunk! I can't even get him to come back in the house and spend quality time! ;(

Ciao, my little strudel!

Now, we are all about glass half full! I've 3....

1. you are lucky it wasn't 90% off, he may have come back with two!
2. better he chases grasshoppers than women!
3. dress up as a grasshopper and have him chase you around the bedroom! (And if that doesn't work, put a chilled beer beside the bed, he'll come back!).

Episode Fifteen

3pm, Cafe Puccini...

With the first week in Positano a resounding success, Lana decides on Cafe Puccini for her first taste of Italy's finest. Wow, she utters walking into the cutest gelateria she has ever seen. Spotting photos on the wall of Hollywood legends sampling Puccini produce, she smiles at her seemingly endless luck. The warm smile of a teenage boy greets Lana. Signorina? What do you like? I like it all, laughs Lana. I pick for you, says the boy, our famous White chocolate. OK! A few minutes pass...Lana is greeted by a chirpy nonno from behind the counter as the young boy giggles. Is it my accent, quips Lana? Oh, nonno thinks you could be a good wife for me! You can tell sweet nonno, unlike chocolate and chip, Lana and wife don't mix. Travel the world, young man, wifey can wait! Laden with enough gelato for a month, Lana walks back, only stopping to admire the myriad of plant pots adorning every street. Bellissima, Italy! We need you in NYC! Ten minutes pass, and Lana slides deep in the sun lounger to munch her way through gelato heaven. Well, Mr Lemon Tree, I'm sure sneaky nonno gave me extra to fatten up wifey, she giggles. A Whatsapp...Gianni. Missing Lana ;) tomorrow, I take you to meeting. Saturday, we eat with Nonna Bu, X
