Dear Coco,

I was working late in the office last week. I thought I was the only one there. As I was leaving, I walked around the corner to find my boss, John, up against the coffee machine with Annabelle, the director of sales. With her face like Elsa in Frozen, I had no choice but to walk past and say "I wanted to grab a spiced latte, but another time, perhaps"! WTF! I love my morning coffee and crumpet and now, all I have is that f"king image of him in his Mickey Mouse boxers! Please help? Love you Coco!

Ciao, my little nougat de sucre,

Sacre bleu!!! I've 3 options.

1. email your boss with 'lips are sealed
Johnno, never saw a thing, expecting a nice promotion, regards to your wife'!!!
2. suggest he buy a years supply of Starbucks, at least until Mickey gets the f"king out of your head!
3. avoid the crumpets!

Episode Eighteen

a gorgeous sunny afternoon, Nonna Bu's...

A warm breeze teases happy guests out on the terrace as Gianni tops up wine glasses to a loud applause. Inside, a by now well-oiled Nonna Bu giggles as she sips limoncello with Lana and shares stories of the airline days. Wow, you could have been a model, Nonna Bu, quips Lana admiring the beautiful photo as she samples Nonna Bu's lemon cake. Intrigued, Lana discovers that Nonna Bu, while working for the airline, had fallen in love with a Captain based in NYC. They wanted things to work but Ravello kept pulling her back. It all worked out in the end the day she met Nonno. Amusingly, as luck would have it, the handsome gentleman was a pilot and with his own planes. One perfect day, he waited to propose to her in a loop the loop and would only stop looping when she said yes. As she climbed out of the plane dizzy and mud drenched with a cheeky couldn't care attitude, he kissed her like no tomorrow. And Captain, Nonna Bu, did you ever see him again? Yes, I thanked him for us not working out, giggles Nonna Bu. The lemons were calling, sweetie! You must squeeze those beauties every day. To us! Salute! And just like that, Lana-lu began to see what those adorable Italians have been hiding all this time! Lana X
