Dear Coco,

My husband went shopping last week and came home with a new Santa sweater for the office Christmas party. I told him not to shop without me because he is too impulsive and LOVES a bargain. He bought the sweater despite it being 3 sizes too small. He won't admit it was stupid. Last night, I spotted him in his garden shed with the dog trying to stretch the sleeves on his lawnmower and looking like an A class f'kwit! Help!

Wendy, Boston

Ciao, my little Wendywoo!

Breathe, pause, smile, repeat! At least until 'sweatergate' lifts! A few options:

1. be happy he is spending his hard earned cash on things that bring him joy.
2. tell him on short-sleeve Santa is destined for the dog's blanket. End of. Unless he is feeling generous (aka Chanel handbag)!
3. you may want to 'unravel' the sweater when he is out and blame it on the dog!

Episode Twenty One

1am Saturday, leaving La Carliana...

It is early hours and a humbled Gianni is driving one giggly, champagne-infused Lana back from La Carliana. Ohhh, his abs, Italian Gods, she sighs as Gianni pulls her in tightly against him while navigating the pretty, sleepy streets. How'd I get so lucky?! Arriving at the pink house, Gianni pauses. Lana, look the sky! Wow, the stars, she sighs, I've never seen so many. Yes, beautiful, like this dress, he says running his hand curiously along the silk. Italian seal of approval, teases Lana? Si, I love. You sexy! As always. A sudden pause of silence ensues as Gianni holds Lana in his gaze. And that voice, quips Lana trying to break her blush, why didn't you tell me, Mr Buble, she giggles. Ha, Lana, you kind! Is my passion. I knew, one day, you listen me! You Sir have found your number one fan...after Nonna Bu! She loves you! She does? Si, she sees herself in you. You know, with the airline. Travel her passion, singing mine! And you Sir, I want more! Oops, I mean singing, not passion, she laughs. Would invite you in for a drink, guess you want to get home, she jests reluctantly not wanting the evening to end. In a seductive gaze, Gianni wipes a hair from Lana's face and playfully pinches her cheek. Si, best, or I wouldn't want to leave...
